PLEASE WRITE PLAINLY, WITH UNFADING INK. Entry must be made in this office before burial permit is issued. Use only black ink. Physicians: please write the causes of death clearly and legibly. Give correct age in all cases where it is known. Answer every question; if information cannot be secured, state the reason why. The word "about" before an age, or the omission of the age, will not be sufficient. Be sure that the date of death is complete. Do not abbreviate. Write out the full name of the cause of death. The cause of death must be certified to by a physician, if there was one in attendance, and by the coroner in all cases where he holds an inquest. Midwives and undertakers are not authorized to certify to the cause of death. Do not report "Heart Failure" as the cause of death without stating what caused the heart failure. Deaths from violence must be reported to the Coroner immediately.
